Talkdesk Privacy Notice

Introduction

Talkdesk, Inc. (hereinafter, “Talkdesk”) is a US based company (388 Market Street, Suite 1300, San Francisco, CA 94111 - United States) that acts in the CCaaS (Contact Center as a Service) space. As part of the contact center services Talkdesk provides to customers throughout the world, Talkdesk processes personal information on behalf of its customers (hereinafter, the "Customers"), acting as a processor for the purposes of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal information and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter, the "General Data Protection Regulation" or "GDPR").

Additionally, Talkdesk also processes personal information of its own, acting as a controller, i.e. determining the purposes and means of the processing of personal information for some purposes (e.g. billing and tax purposes).

Talkdesk is committed to comply with relevant applicable Privacy and Data Protection legislation and regulations, including specific contractual requirements, applying international best practices to protect personal information trusted by our customers or when processing personal data from natural persons as a controller. For this purpose, Talkdesk has implemented and regularly reviews Policies, Procedures, Standards and Guidelines to increase the security of personal data and ensure the rights of data subjects, directly or in its responsibility to customers and partners, are addressed according to the applicable laws and in a timely manner.

This privacy notice covers both situations. Data subjects whose personal information is processed by a Customer of Talkdesk must consult that Customer’s privacy policies.

For easier understanding, this notice covers the same topics from both perspectives: Controller and Processor:

- What personal information is collected?
- Why is personal information collected?
- How long is personal information retained?
- What are the data subject rights?
- How can a data subject/person exercise its rights?
- To whom may personal information be transferred?
- Where is information stored?

Talkdesk as a Controller

What personal information is collected?

Talkdesk collects information about you limited to what is relevant, proportional, adequate and necessary for identified purposes. We consider the jurisdiction’s requirements that govern the information collection and we proceed according to applicable privacy & data protection legislation.

How Talkdesk Collects your data

Personal data that Talkdesk collects directly from you:

Talkdesk collects personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when you (i) register on the Talkdesk website, Talkdesk knowledge base, Talkdesk Academy website or Talkdesk Community, (ii) when you express an interest in obtaining information about Talkdesk, Talkdesk products, services and events, (iii) when you interact with Talkdesk social media campaigns via social networks, (iv) when you register in Talkdesk events, (v) when you apply for job offers, (vi) when you choose to download Talkdesk ebooks and use resources available in Talkdesk website or (vii) when you directly contact Talkdesk using the official contact mechanisms that we make available (phone, chat, email).

The information collected is: identification data (first name, last name), contact data (business email address, business phone number), professional details (functional role, company name, country).

When applying for a job offer, Talkdesk collects the information provided in the resume, cover letter and LinkedIn profile.

Talkdesk also collects the information that you choose to share with us when contacting us by our official contact mechanisms.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

Personal data obtained from third-party sources

Talkdesk may use business contact information collected by third parties, including reseller partners, trusted strategic alliances, and acquired professional contacts databases. Appropriate privacy and security assessments are performed to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations and to ensure the collection of the data is lawful and uses fair means, including the existence of notice and collection of consent for sharing with third parties (Talkdesk), when required by the applicable laws.

The information used is: identification data (first name, last name), contact data (business email address, business phone number), professional details (functional role, company name), Linkedin Profile.

Personal data obtained from publicly accessible resources

Talkdesk may also collect information about you from publicly accessible sources such as Linkedin.

The personal information collected is namely identification and contact data (e.g. email address and phone number), job details and skills to support our recruitment processes.

More details can be provided through the Data Protection Officer, email privacy@talkdesk.com.

Why is personal information collected?

The purposes for which personal information is processed includes:

- To contact you to respond to your requests, eg. when you request to experience a demo or when you request to get in touch with a Talkdesk solutions consultant;
- Recruiting and hiring management;
- To support our sales effort, including to get feedback from the engagement process - always in a B2B perspective;
- To send marketing information on our products and services marketing (including telemarketing) – B2B perspective;
- Customer relationship management – this may include payment information;
- To provide support to our customers;
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

- Management of business relationships with prospective customers, vendors, suppliers, resellers or partners;
- Events registrations (including webinars, meet-ups, roundtables, Opentalk and others);
- Access to our offices;
- To provide you access to Talkdesk academy and training materials;
- To use CX Talent;
- To register and be a member of Talkdesk Communities (B2B);
- Navigation and usage of Talkdesk institutional site;
- Cookies usage (specific policy shared on site).

Talkdesk collects the least amount of information required and only for the purposes identified above and the legal basis of each processing is to perform a contract obligation, the furtherance of a legitimate interest, or with consent (in this case, explicit consent).

Purposes of processing related to marketing or product/brand awareness, depending on the context, may rely on a legitimate interest of Talkdesk or your consent. Talkdesk requires your consent according to the applicable laws, but may rely on legitimate interest when the applicable law allows and when you already have shown us interest in our products and services.

When Talkdesk uses your personal information based on consent, we ensure you have a free choice.

In communications related to marketing-specific purposes, Talkdesk also provides a choice to opt-out of further communications.

Talkdesk does not use or process personal data for other purposes and does not sell and does not allow its sub-processors to sell personal information (as the term “sell” is defined under the CCPA).

How long is personal information retained?

Data retention periods depend on the purposes of the processing. Under applicable legislation, Talkdesk provides more information on the data retention periods when personal information is collected. More details can be obtained through the Data Protection Officer’s email privacy@talkdesk.com.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

What are the data subject rights?

Data subjects’ rights depend on the jurisdictions where they are located. Typical data subjects rights include:

- Right of access: Right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal information concerning the data subject is being processed, and, where that is the case, access to that personal information.

- Right to rectification: Right to obtain rectification of inaccurate personal information concerning the data subject.

- Right to erasure or to be forgotten: Right to the erasure of personal information concerning the data subject.

- Right to restrict processing: Right to restrict the processing of the personal information to the extent permitted by law and in accordance with Talkdesk contractual and legal commitments.

- Right to data portability: Right to receive the personal information provided and concerning the data subject, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

- Right to object: Right to object to the processing of the data subject's data for reasons related to their own personal situation.

- Right not to be subject to automated decision-making: Right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing.

- Right to withdraw consent: Right to remove consent for specific processing.

- Right to complaint: Right to send a complaint to the proper authority.

- Right to prevent your information from being sold: Right to state that the data subject does not want their personal information to be sold to anyone.

- Right to non-discrimination: Right to not receive discriminatory treatment for the exercise of the data subject rights.

In relation to collection, disclosure and use of personal data, data subjects are entitled to the following choices:
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

- Marketing messages: Data subjects can freely opt-in to receive marketing communication from Talkdesk products, services or job advertisements. Data subjects can opt out of email marketing messages by clicking on the unsubscribe link in the email or sending an email to privacy@talkdesk.com.

- Events: Talkdesk may promote events related to the Contact Center industry and data subjects can freely fill in the registration form. Talkdesk will only collect the information needed to register the data subject and to communicate details of the event with the data subject.

- Cookies and similar technologies: When using our website, data subjects can decline cookies. You can see more details in our cookie policy.

- Job Opportunities: Data subjects can freely submit their applications using the Careers webform. Talkdesk only collects the fields needed to proceed with the recruitment and to be able to contact the job candidate. In addition, job candidates can freely opt-in to receive career opportunities.

How can a data subject/person exercise its rights?

Data subjects may exercise their rights by submitting a request to the Data Protector Officer by email at privacy@talkdesk.com.

To whom may personal information be transferred?

Talkdesk may share, transfer or disclose personal information in specific situations to particular categories of recipients:

I. Our trusted SaaS third parties providers, acting as processors and according to Talkdesk instructions;

II. Talkdesk reseller partners, trusted strategic alliances that may support Talkdesk sales effort and according to privacy laws and regulations;

III. Talkdesk partners and sponsors of Talkdesk promoted events and according to privacy laws and regulations;

IV. Talkdesk affiliates and according to Talkdesk’s security and privacy policies and applicable laws and regulation of each region;

V. Government entities where the transfer of information is legally required under local laws or required to comply with legal requests;
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

VI. Potential buyers in connection to a merger & acquisition or any form of transfer or sale.

Talkdesk has implemented mechanisms to choose and engage providers and, when required by law, disclose personal information to government entities.

Talkdesk does not sell and does not allow its sub-processors to sell personal information (as the term “sell” is defined under the CCPA).

A list of Talkdesk’s processors can be provided if requested privacy@talkdesk.com.

International Transfers

As a US headquartered multinational company, personal data may be collected, transferred to, processed, and stored by us in the United States, and by our affiliates and third parties that are based in other countries.

Currently, Talkdesk is also established in Armenia, Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Portugal, UK, and Singapore.

Where is information stored?

Personal data, when held physically, is stored in the same location as where it was produced.

Personal data, when held digitally, is mainly stored in the US and any transfer of information from European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland to the US or other countries is made based on:

- Adequacy Decision: Countries designated by the European Commission as having an adequate level of protection for personal information.

- Standard Contractual Clauses: Talkdesk relies on the European Commission’s model contracts for the transfer of personal information to third countries (i.e. the standard contractual clauses) pursuant to Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/914 of 4 June 2021.

- Privacy Shield: Talkdesk complies with the EU–U.S. Privacy Shield and the Swiss–U.S. Privacy Shield Framework as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of personal information.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

from the European Union and Switzerland to the United States, respectively. Talkdesk has certified to the Department of Commerce that adheres to the Privacy Shield Principles of notice, choice, onward transfer, security, data integrity, access, and enforcement. If there is any conflict between the terms in this privacy notice and the Privacy Shield Principles, the Privacy Shield Principles shall govern. To learn more about the Privacy Shield program, and to view Talkdesk certification, please visit https://www.privacyshield.gov.

In July 2020, the Court of Justice of the European Union invalidated the EU-US Privacy Shield framework. As a result, Privacy Shield is no longer an appropriate safeguard for the purposes of legitimizing the transfer of personal data outside of the EEA or the UK. The Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (the Swiss supervisory authority) subsequently followed suit and invalidated the Swiss-US Privacy Shield.

While Talkdesk remains self-certified under the EU-US and Swiss-US Privacy Shield Frameworks, it is not currently relying on these Frameworks for transfers of personal data from EU and Swiss.

How is information protected?

Talkdesk has implemented an Information Security and Privacy Information Management Systems (ISMS and PIMS) and BCMS (Business Continuity Management System) as a framework for continuous improvement of security, privacy and business continuity. The ISMS, PIMS, and BCMS include Policies, Awareness on Security and Privacy, adequate processual and technical controls, audit logging, and third-party due diligence, among others.

Talkdesk performs regular due diligence on third parties for security and privacy compliance.

Personal Information from Children

Talkdesk will never knowingly collect any personal information from children under the age of 13. If we obtain actual knowledge that we have collected personal information from a child under the age of 13, that information will be immediately removed from any access. Because we do not collect such information, we have no such information to use or to disclose to third parties. We have designed this notice in order to comply with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA).

Privacy Shield Independent Recourse Mechanism

In compliance with the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield, Talkdesk is committed to resolving complaints about your privacy and our collection or use of your personal information. European Union or Swiss citizens with inquiries or complaints regarding this privacy notice should first contact us at: privacy@talkdesk.com.

If necessary, we have further committed to refer unresolved privacy complaints under the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield to JAMS, an alternative dispute resolution provider located in the United States. If you have an unresolved privacy or data use concern that we have not addressed satisfactorily, please contact our U.S.-based third party dispute resolution provider (free of charge) at https://www.jamsadr.com/eu-us-privacy-shield.

As a last resort, privacy complaints that remain unresolved after pursuing these and other channels may be subject to binding arbitration before the Privacy Shield Panel to be created jointly by the US Department of Commerce and the European Commission. The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction over Talkdesk's compliance with this notice and the EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Frameworks. In cases of onward transfer to third parties of data of EU and Swiss individuals received pursuant to the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield, Talkdesk is potentially liable.

In compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles, Talkdesk commits to resolve complaints about our collection or use of your personal information. EU individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding our Privacy Shield notice should first contact Talkdesk at:

Privacy Team/DPO

Talkdesk has further committed to cooperate with the panel established by the EU data protection authorities (DPAs) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) and comply with the advice given by such authorities with regard to human resources data transferred from the EU and Switzerland in the context of the employment relationship.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

Talkdesk only discloses personal information as stated in this privacy notice. Nevertheless, Talkdesk may also disclose personal information as may be required or permitted in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security law enforcement requirements.

California User Consumer Rights

This section only applies when Talkdesk is a controller.

In accordance with California Civil Code Section 1789.3, California resident users are entitled to know that they may file grievances and complaints with the California Department of Consumer Affairs, 400 R Street, STE 1080, Sacramento, CA 95814; or by phone at 916-445-1254 or 800-952-5210; or by email to dca@dca.ca.gov. For more information about protecting your privacy, you may wish to visit: http://www.ftc.gov.

If you are a California resident, California Civil Code Section 1798.83 permits you to request information regarding the disclosure of your personal information by us to third parties for the third parties’ direct marketing purposes. With respect to us, this privacy notice applies only to their activities within the State of California. To make such a request or if you have questions about this privacy notice, please send an email to privacy@talkdesk.com.

Talkdesk as a (Sub-)Processor

What personal information is processed?

When Talkdesk provides a cloud service and acts on behalf of its customers, Talkdesk acts as a processor or subprocessor depending on the customer’s responsibility. Therefore, the information that is collected by Talkdesk's customers when using Talkdesk's products is under customer's responsibility as is the definition of the categories of data subjects.

Nevertheless, the information that is collected includes:

- Contact: typically, customer's end customer or prospect (it's customer responsibility to define the types of contacts for which Talkdesk service is provided): Name, phone number and email.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

- Agent: usually an employee of the customer that uses Talkdesk for inbound or outbound calls: Name, e-mail and associated phone number. May also include characteristics of the agent such as gender.

- Interactions: call metadata such as a contact phone number, agent phone number, date, time and duration of call and call context.

- Call recording: if configured in such a way, call recordings will also be collected.

- Content data: personal data that may be included in communications or as a result of Talkdesk products and services, as controlled by Talkdesk Customers. Content data may include, as applicable to the respective service:

  - Call Transcriptions: content data resulting from call transcriptions, where instructed by our Customers.

  - SMS Content: content data that can be integrated into a channel that allows asynchronous support from our customers who want to provide support via text message instead of calling.

  - Chat Content: content data that can be integrated into a channel that allows asynchronous support from our customers who want to provide support via voice and digital chat conversations.

  - Email Content: content data that can be integrated into a channel that allows asynchronous support to customers who want to contact support via incoming Email conversation.

  - Screen Recordings: content data resulting from a recording of agent activity on CCaaS where enabled by our Customers.

Talkdesk restricts the collection of the information to the minimum amount required to provide its services and it will be processed according to the purposes for which it was collected.

Why is personal information collected?

Personal data is collected to provide the service of Contact Center as a Service and to support and troubleshoot issues reported by our Customers.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

How long is personal information retained?

When Customers act as controllers, they define the retention periods for the information they collect. Additionally, when Customer terminates its contract with Talkdesk, the information is removed according to the Master Subscription Agreement or earlier if requested.

Talkdesk may keep anonymized information for longer periods (that will not identify directly or indirectly any agent, contact, or customer) for analysis of how service is used and for the improvement of it.

What are the data subject rights?

Data subject rights depend on the jurisdictions where they are located and the jurisdictions where Talkdesk customers are located. Nevertheless, typical data subjects rights include:

- Right of access: Right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal information concerning the data subject is being processed, and, where that is the case, access to that personal information.

- Right to rectification: Right to obtain rectification of inaccurate personal information concerning the data subject.

- Right to erasure or to be forgotten: Right to the erasure of personal information concerning the data subject.

- Right to restrict processing: Right to restrict the processing of personal information to the extent permitted by law and in accordance with Talkdesk contractual and legal commitments.

- Right to data portability: Right to receive the personal information provided and concerning the data subject, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

- Right to object: Right to object to the processing of personal data for reasons related to your own personal situation.

- Right not to be subject to automated decision-making: Right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing.
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

- Right to withdraw consent: Right to remove consent for specific processing.
- Right to complaint: Right to send a complaint to the proper authority.
- Right to prevent your information from being sold: Right to state that the data subject does not want their personal information to be sold to anyone.
- Right to non-discrimination: Right to not receive discriminatory treatment for the exercise of the data subject rights.

How can a data subject exercise its rights?

When Talkdesk processes information on behalf of a customer, all data subject rights must be addressed directly to the customer.

To whom may personal information be transferred?

As a processor/service provider, Talkdesk only uses data to provide the service agreed and according to customer instructions and Talkdesk does not sell the information its customers collect while using Talkdesk service (as the term “sell” is defined under the CCPA).

Nevertheless, Talkdesk uses third-parties providers to provide its service and those providers follow the same security and privacy commitments as Talkdesk.

A list of Talkdesk sub-processors can be provided to customers. Such requests must be sent to privacy@talkdesk.com.

Talkdesk may transfer data to potential buyers in connection to a merger & acquisition or any form of transfer or sale.

Talkdesk may disclose data to government entities where the disclosure of information is legally required under local laws or required to comply with legal requests.

Where is information stored?

Talkdesk HQ and main processing facilities are located in the US. However, Talkdesk has other processing facilities in other regions (such as Europe and Canada).

When a transfer of information from European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland to other countries happens, it's made based on:
Talkdesk Privacy Notice

- Adequacy Decision: Countries designated by the European Commission as having an adequate level of protection for personal information.

- Standard Contractual Clauses: Talkdesk relies on the Commission's model contracts for the transfer of personal information to third countries (i.e. the standard contractual clauses) pursuant to the Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/914 of 4 June 2021.

- Privacy Shield: Talkdesk complies with the EU-US Privacy Shield and the Swiss-US Privacy Shield Framework as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of personal information from the European Union and Switzerland to the United States, respectively. Talkdesk has certified to the Department of Commerce that it adheres to the Privacy Shield Principles of notice, choice, onward transfer, security, data integrity, access, and enforcement. To learn more about the Privacy Shield program, and to view Talkdesk certification, please visit https://www.privacyshield.gov.

  While Talkdesk remains self-certified under the EU-US and Swiss-US Privacy Shield Frameworks, it's not currently relying on these Frameworks for transfers of personal data from EU and Swiss.

Transfers between other jurisdictions may require specific and additional provisions that must be defined by the customer in conjunction with Talkdesk.

How is information protected?

Talkdesk adopts an Information Security and Privacy Information Management Systems (ISMS and PIMS) and BCMS (Business Continuity Management System) as a framework for continuous improvement of security, privacy, and business continuity. The ISMS, PIMS, and BCMS include Policies, Awareness on Security and Privacy, adequate processual and technical controls, audit logging, and third-party due diligence, among others.
